2022 Summer Agriculture, Culinary, and Visual Arts Camp Registration Packet

Alejandro L. Guerra, Camp Director

Description:

Teatro will be holding its annual one-week Summer Agriculture, Culinary and Visual Arts Camp starting Monday June 6, 2022 and concluding on Friday June 10, 2022. This camp will be open to children from the ages of 6-16 and their families. We encourage parents or guardians to join their student during the camp for a day or two, to learn with them and interact with the camp as a family. On the final day of camp, parents/guardians are invited into the building for the last 30 minutes. At this time, students will discuss what they've learned by displaying their art pieces and share their favorite lessons from the entire camp. Our camp will provide agricultural, artistic, and cultural experiences in the form of two stations/classes:

Monday – Friday 8:30am – 10:00am – Agriculture/Culinary with Habitable Spaces (Alison & Shane)

10:00am – 10:30am – Snacks/Cleanup/Prepare for next class (snacks will be provided)

10:30am – 12:00pm – Visual Arts with Alejandro L. Guerra

The camp is limited to 25 families on a first come first serve basis. Teatro De Artes is providing this camp FREE of charge and no payment is required to register.

The participants will be exploring agricultural traditions of Mexican culture and as possible, they will use the LULAC Community Garden located caddy—corner to Teatro's Cultural Arts Center. Nature loving participants are encouraged to visit the garden as a family, to harvest vegetables on their own time, and to learn more about food and gardening. Each day will consist of high-quality classes from a variety of disciplines (visual arts, culinary arts, gardening/agriculture) and will be taught by experienced chefs, local agriculturalists, educators, and artists. Class material will vary based on the age and level of participants.

Teatro's Summer Agriculture, Culinary and Visual Arts Camp is funded in part by the Texas Commission on the Arts, United Way, National Endowment for the Arts, Guadalupe County Community Symposium (GCCS), Humanities Texas, San Antonio Area Foundation, H-E-B and LULAC Foundation. The camp fulfills Teatro's mission to promote a better understanding of the Mexican-American culture by the teaching, study, practice, and performance of the arts.

Goals of the Camp:

- To provide two distinct high-quality classes in visual arts and in agriculture/culinary arts.
- To serve at least 25 children and their families in one week (preference will be given to those residing in Guadalupe, Bexar and surrounding counties).
- To provide a fun, safe, educational, and creative atmosphere where children can learn about gardening, food and agriculture: and create visual art pieces.
- To employ local experts with long-standing ties to Teatro.
- To create meaningful volunteer and work experience for community members.
- To increase exposure of and involvement in Teatro's school year programs and events.

Registration forms are due on/or before Friday, May 27, 2022.

The Camp Director, Alejandro L. Guerra will contact you on/or before Wednesday June 1, 2022.
